Abel Russo

Abel Russo creates luminous landscapes drawn from memory and fantasy, creating an idealized world that is recognizable and otherworldly. Abel was born in the Bronx in the 1940's when cars intermingled with horse-drawn carriages. His paintings are reminiscent of an earlier, more simple time, a place we wish we could inhabit. After a career in advertising and publishing, Abel now works from his studio in the Hudson Valley. You can see more of his works at Inge Dube's Driftwood Gallery on Division Street in Peekskill, NY. You will be stunned by his painted furniture pieces, functional works of art.
